Springfield Leader Bargain Days.

Subscriptions to the Springfield Leader will be received until January 31st at the reduced rate of $2.50 a year for single subscriptions or $2.00 each for clubs of three. All the features of the Leader, which have made it the most popular paper in Southwest Missouri, will be continued during 1914 and others added. The Leader is the only newspaper in Southwest Missouri that is published every day in the week. The Sunday issue contains a colored comic section.

The Editor of this paper will be glad to receive and forward subscriptions to the Leader at these reduced rates.

Mr. Whistler of Faragut, Iowa, manager of the light and power company at that place, was in town a couple of days last week looking over the big dam and electric plant near here. Mr. Whistler says his company is figuring on putting in a plant similar to this but on a smaller scale, to supply current to their customers in Iowa.

The damage case of Dr. Humphreys vs. the Kisse Mills and Taneyville telephone company was heard before Justice of the peace D. B. Wood here Monday and resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff for $25 damages to his buggy, and telephone people to pay costs. There was a large array of witnesses present and the case lasted until rather late at night.

Byron Boswell and sister, Miss Beulah came down from Springfield last week to spend Christmas with their father, and other relatives and friends here.

W. A. Wood of Swan, who has recently been discharged from the army after having served his enlistment, was in town Saturday night and dropped a dollar in the till for the editor to continue to receive the weekly visits of the Republican. Mr. Wood has been for some time stationed at Fort Morgan Alabama.

David Miller went to Springfield last Thursday to meet Miss Marguerite Petty of Paola who has been visiting the Miller family here for the past few days. Miss Petty is a very charming young lady, an accomplished musician and it is possible that some time in the near future she will decide to take up her residence in Forsyth.

Billy Gladson, Lawrence Ray and Riley Adams attended the regular meeting of the Odd Fellows Lodge at Kisse Mills on last Saturday night, and assisted at the initiation of Jess Lambeth and Ernie Beeler as members of this popular fraternal order.

On Christmas night "The Old Maid's Club" of Forsyth, held an open session at the court house and charged an admission fee of ten and twenty cents, which netted them a nice little sum of money. The proceeds were to be used in church and Sunday school work. A good big audience attended the performance and seemed well pleased with the entertainment. On Friday night the same show was given at Branson to a good audience and was well received.

Mr. L. F. Collins, late of Cedar creek but now of Hollister, dropped into this office Wednesday to order the address on his paper changed.

J. P. Nicholas, of Pinetop, was a visitor to the county seat Tuesday of this week, and made this office a pleasant call.

A. K. Bishop, the photographer, who left here last Spring to go east and build a patent hay baling machine of his invention, came in Tuesday evening for a short visit with friends here. He expects to leave in a few days for Chicago where his machine will be manufactured.

W. L. Humphrey came up from Proteum Wednesday to make a business call on the county collector. Wednesday was the last day for paying taxes without the penalty being added.

Masonic Officers Installed.

Last Saturday afternoon at one o'clock the officers for the coming year were installed by Forsyth Lodge No. 453, A. F. & A. M. Past Master J. H. Parrish was the installing officer and the places were filled by the following: R. C. Ford, W. M.; J. L. Ray, S. W.; J. B. Hicks, J. W.; Jesse Nance, Treasurer, J. H. Parrish Chaplain, J. C. Davis Sec., F. F. Bally S. D.; J. C. Parrish, J. D.; J. A. Weatherman, S. S.; N. D. Boles, J. S.; A. L. Parrish Tiler. The installation ceremonies were private.

An accident that might have been much more serious than it was, but was bad enough while it lasted, occurred Sunday evening on the lake above the dam. C. S. William of Hollister made a trip down to the dam in a little 16-foot power boat, and on the return trip ran out of gasoline. He succeeded in finding two gallons at a farm house along the lake and in filling his tank spilled a good deal of it in the boat. In starting his engine he knocked a lantern over and set fire to the free gasoline in the boat which burned all the wood fittings out of the boat and came near cooking Mr. Williams and a friend who was with him. They managed to get to the shore and were there all right when M. C. Jacques took them off in his boat and hauled them home. One of the men in the burning boat made the statement after getting back home that they were at least a half mile from shore when the fire started. They paddled the boat to the shore with a seat wrenched from the boat.

N. O. Thornton returned Friday from a visit with the family of his father on the north side of the county, and reported that the roads out that way are almost impassible. Mrs. Thornton and little daughter did not return at that time, but are waiting for better weather and roads for traveling.

Charlie Adams the erst, while merchant and "Nasby" at Greenleaf, accompanied by his wife, visited his father Prosecuting Attorney Adams, during the holidays. He has traded his interest in the store to L. N. Williams and the stock has been moved to Kisse Mill and opened up in the Odd Fellows building and will be charge of Jess Lambeth while Mr. Williams is finishing out his term of school at that place.

J. L. Day of Greenleaf was in town Saturday, transacted business in relation to the purchase of a fine Beaver farm below Bradleyville of M. B. Slusher, and accompanied the Forsyth boys in their attendance at the Odd Fellows Lodge at Kisse Mills.

Springfield's Best Daily Paper.

The Springfield Leader's annual bargain period is now on. It closes January 31st. Until that date subscriptions by mail will be received at $2.50 a year for single subscriptions or at $2.00 a year in clubs of three.
